The Story So Far

Akasaka Ryuji, from second-year class B at Hikari Academy High School, began having bizarre dreams while he was still awake. One day, Ryuji was thrown from the roof of the school into the pool by the school gang, and flew to another world. It was the same world he had seen in his dreams. There, he met a girl named Koze. She said that Ryuji was the legendary hero, Ryu. Ryuji returned back to the real world, but was taken to the other world once more. Before long, he took on the name of Ryu, savior of the world. In order to defeat the rulers of Domo, Ryuji joins the revolutionary army with Koze. But does he have the power to cause a miracle...!?
